Wheely Bug

Award-winning eco-friendly ride-on soft critter

The Wheely Bug ride-on critters are quickly becoming “the” gift-to-give for youngsters. What you can't quite tell from the photos, is that these buggies are soft. They may look wooden, but the leatherette seat has a layer of foam underneath so it's soft. There are no sharp edges either. Here are a few more fun factoids: Tough PU covering is easy to clean, entirely non-toxic and contains no PVC, multidirectional castors, so no more getting stuck! The stainless steel spring mounted “feelers” have an internal cord to prevent pull out and the plywood base made from renewable plantation timber. Ride on, kiddos!
